

Oregon 4-H Youth Development Program Model

4-H helps young people learn and grow through an intentional process that builds competence, confidence, connection, compassion, and character. Our vision is for all youth to experience economic and social success in adulthood while making positive contributions to their communities.

